Provost-McEwen Nuptials Read in Church Service

In a late afternoon ceremony on Oct. 7 at the Harbor City Four Square Church, Miss Jerri Lynne Provost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Provost, 1646 W. 220th St. became the bride of James Lee McEwen. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. James H. McEwen 1516 W. 226th St.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over white satin. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling white gardenias.

Miss Jerry McEwen was the maid of honor. She wore a pink satin and lace gown and carried a bouquet of pink carnations centered by an orchid.

Georgian Hazelbaker was the flower girl carrying a basket of pink carnations.

Jeff Smith stood as best man and George Widby served as usher.

Mrs. T. Hazelbaker played the wedding marches and sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride is a senior at Narbonne High school. Her husband was graduated from Narbonne and is employed by the Olson Glass Co.

New Flag Dedicated By Club

First pot luck meeting of the fall for the Torrance Woman's club was held Nov. 16 at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Roy Apsey president conducted a business meeting.

A dedication ceremony for the club's new 50-star flag was given by Mrs. W. L. Lucas and Mrs. Alma Smith.

Mrs. W. I. Laughon accompanied by Mrs. James Buschett sang "Thanks Be To God".

The members voted to send care packages to South America as part of their Christmas philanthropy.

Mrs. D. G. DeHoog, well known local artist and chairman of the club's art section gave an interesting demonstration on the actual steps in the painting of an oil landscape. She also answered questions from members and guests on all phases of art and art appreciation.

The next event on the club's calendar will be the annual Christmas Bazaar on Nov. 30 at the clubhouse.

On Dec. 7, the next regular meeting of the club will be held. This will be a catered luncheon at 12:30 p. m. followed by a business meeting.
